The Girl Who Hated Books

(Continue your work after the reference to context)

5. What were the different kinds of books that Meena's parents had bought for her?

Ans: Meena's parents had bought big shiny picture books, alphabet books and nursery rhymes as well as fairy tales and adventure stories for her.

7. Why did Meena begin reading?

Ans; Meena began reading because that was the only way the characters from the books would go back into their own books.

8. What surprised Meena's parents when they returned home that afternoon?
What do you think brought about this change in Meena?

Ans: Meena's parents were surprised when they saw Meena reading a book. After reading many books, Meena must have realised the joy of reading a book.
