

Q1. Name the positional Number Systems used in digital systems and write the following:

- i. The base of these number systems.
- ii. The component digits of these number systems.
- iii. the values in different number systems as examples.