

Articles and Punctuation

Continue to write in your English Literature copy after questions and answers of ch.2

1) Fill in the blanks with a, an, the

a) I usually drink – glass of milk in – morning.

b) Meet me after – hour.

c) Sri Lanka is – island.

d) We must always speak – truth.

e) I first met him – year ago.

2) Fill in the blanks with a/an or one:

a. i) How many copies do you have on your desk?

I have – copy on my desk.

ii) What do you have on your desk?

I have – copy on my desk.

b.i) What do you want to eat?

I want to eat – apple.

ii) How many apples do you want to eat?

I want to eat – apple.

3) Punctuate the following sentences with exclamation marks, full stops and question mark.

a) Well done You have played well

b) Hello How are you doing

c) Wow This is great

d) Alas She has failed again

e) Ah What a scene