

ASSIGNMENT

STD-2

ENGLISH LITERATURE

Ch-6 The Mice and the Elephants

Continue to write in your English Literature copy after reference to context no.3.

Reference to context

4. Then she remembered the promise that the mouse king had made and she sent for her little friend.

a. Who remembered the promise?

ans. The elephant queen remembered the promise.

b. What was the promise?

ans. The promise was that the mice would help the elephants whenever the need arose.

c. Who was the little friend?

ans. The little friend was the mouse king.

Read, reflect and write

Q5. How did the elephants disturb the mice at first?

Ans.The elephants in their search of water entered the mouse colony on the otherside of the forest.As they walked through their colony,their huge feet destroyed the houses of the mice as well as their stores of food.

Q6.Why did the elephants warn the mice before crossing the colony?

Ans.The elephants warned the mice before crossing their colony so that they could be careful and protect themselves and their food from the elephants feet.

