

class 9

Assignment

"Out of this heritage the Tamil language gushed through Muri in an unimpeded flow. He said, "Before god, sir, Bhagwan who sees everything, I tell you, sir, that we know nothing of the case. If the murder was committed, whoever did it will not escape. Bhagwan is all seeing. Don't ask me about it. I know nothing."

Q1. What is meant by unimpeded flow? Why did Muri speak in such a way?

Q2. State how the title of the story, "A House and Two goats," is relevant.

Q3. How is the clash of cultures brought about in the story?