

Std 7

English Literature

Reference to context

'And our lives were turned upside down and each one of us was trying to cope with the changed circumstances as best as we could.'

- I. What did the narrator mean by the phrase 'turned upside down'?
- II. Why had such a situation arisen?
- III. What were the problems faced by the narrator due to her changed circumstances?