

Std 10 Computer Applications

Q1. Write a program to accept 20 integers in an array called A[ ]. Store all the negative integers of array A into another array called B and the all positive integers into array C respectively. Finally print arrays A,B C.