REFERENCE TO CONTEXT

2. There was another light in the room now, a thousand times brighter than the night-lights, going in and out of all the drawers in the nursery, looking for Peter's shadow

Q a) Was it day or night at this time in the story? How do we know?

Ans. a) It was night time. The children had gone to bed, and their night- lights had gone out one by one.

Q b) What was this bright light?

Ans. b) The light was the flashing of Tinker Bell as she moved around quickly.

Q c) Where was Peter's shadow found?

Ans. c) Peter's shadow was found in the chest of drawers.

Q d) The above line is taken from which lesson? Name the writer.

Ans. d) The above line is taken from the lesson Peter and Wendy. Sir James Mathew Barrie is the writer.

READ REFLECT AND WRITE

Q4) Give a description of Tinker Bell.

Ans4) Tinker Bell was a little fairy dressed in a leaf gown. She was about as big as a child's hand and she moved about very quickly. She spoke fairy language which sounded like the tinkle of bells. She also had fairy dust on her which made her glow.
